

LAWS vs. RULES

Read, cut, sort, and paste each card in the correct box.

Name: _____

Page 1

LAWS

Made by government. Everyone must follow them.

PASTE LAWS HERE

RULES

Made for a place or group to keep people safe.

PASTE RULES HERE

CUT APART THE CARDS BELOW

Wear a seat belt in the car.

Stop when the traffic light is red.

Do not steal from a store.

Drivers must follow the speed limit.

Raise your hand before speaking.

Walk quietly in the hallway.

Put away games after playing.

Take turns on the playground.

LAWS vs. RULES CHALLENGE

Cut out each card. Paste it under the best heading.

Name: _____

Page 2

LAWS

RULES

CUT APART

Wear a helmet when required by law.

Use an inside voice in the library.

Children must attend school.

Keep your desk area clean.

Do not damage another person's property.

Line up when the bell rings.

Think and Write

Why do communities need laws and rules?

ANSWER KEY

Suggested answers for the Laws vs. Rules cut-and-paste activity.

Name: _____

Page 3

Page 1 - Laws

- Wear a seat belt in the car.
- Stop when the traffic light is red.
- Do not steal from a store.
- Drivers must follow the speed limit.

Page 1 - Rules

- Raise your hand before speaking.
- Walk quietly in the hallway.
- Put away games after playing.
- Take turns on the playground.

Page 2 - Laws

- Wear a helmet when required by law.
- Children must attend school.
- Do not damage another person's property.

Page 2 - Rules

- Use an inside voice in the library.
- Keep your desk area clean.
- Line up when the bell rings.

Accept other reasonable explanations for the Think and Write response.